A National Update of the Performance-based Standards (PbS) Program

The House that DJJ Built

Workers lift the Habitat for Humanity house over a fence from a South Carolina Department of Juvenile Justice facility in Columbia, S.C. Youths at the facility worked with volunteers to build the home for a woman whose son suffers from cerebral palsy. Thank you to all the youths, volunteers, and sponsors who have made this all possible.

Announcing the National Center for Youth in Custody

The National Center for Youth in Custody (NC4YC) was launched by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) in response to the call from the field for assistance, leadership and support to improve and reform youth detention and correction facilities and adult facilities housing youthful offenders. NC4YC is co-directed by the Council of Juvenile Correctional Administrators (CJCA) and the National Partnership of Juvenile Services (NJPS). Visit
