Celebration and Surprise: The 2019 CJCA and PbS Awards Night

The 2019 CJCA and PbS Awards Night on August 2 came back to Boston, the hometown of both organizations, for the second time in three years. As attendees filtered into the grand ballroom of the Boston Marriott Copley Place hotel in Boston's Back Bay, that sense of hometown pride could be felt from the buzz and energy of so many juvenile justice leaders coming together to recognize, support and celebrate each other and the work they do every day.

Congratulations to the Winners of the 2019 PbS Barbara Allen-Hagen Award

Performance-based Standards is proud to announce the winners of the 2019 PbS Barbara Allen-Hagen Award! Stevenson House Detention Center in Milford, DE was selected in the detention category for effectively reducing confinement by modifying the behavior management system. In the community residential category, Luther Hall in Fargo, ND was selected for improving youths' understanding of the rules and perceptions of fairness and safety in their program. Finally, Green Hill School in Chehalis, WA was the winner in the correction category for reducing the use of room confinement and the eventual closure of the facility's segregation unit. Congratulations to the three winners, and thank you at all those who applied!
