Barbara Allen-Hagen Application Tips

The application period for the 2019 PbS Barbara Allen-Hagen Award is now open! Performance-based Standards (PbS) proudly presents a PbS Barbara Allen-Hagen (BAH) Award each year to one long-term correction facility, one short-term detention or assessment center and one community residential program for living out the PbS mission to treat all youths in custody as one of our own. To help make this year's application as successful as possible, make sure you review each of the following steps as you prepare your application.

Show Us Your New PbS Dashboard!

The newly redesigned PbS Dashboard is available now on the PbS website! The Dashboard adds interactive elements that give you immediate access to your most important components of PbS without having to navigate through multiple pages to get to them. We've created this helpful guide to show you what's new and how it works. Log in to the PbS website to get started.

Got a Dashboard you'd like show us? If your Dashboard has been helpful to you and your team, send us a screenshot of it and a story about why it works for your site. You will be entered to win PbS prizes if your screenshots appear in our upcoming DLW presentation.
